Year 10 – Autumn Term

Persecution – Intro to Devising and a Set Text – Missing Dan Nolan

| | |
|--|--|
| Prior Learning | Pupils will have learnt the basic drama key skills in key stage 3 and have some knowledge about how to create short scenes and bring a script to life. |
| What will I learn? | Persecution – Intro to Devising Pupils will be exploring the theme of 'Persecution' using different stimuli and then working together to devise a performance. The key skills pupils will be learning are working successfully in a group by contributing ideas and listening to others, responding to stimuli by researching and then generating dramatic ideas from the research, developing the ideas, rehearsing the performance using techniques and then performing. A Set Text – Missing Dan Nolan Pupils will study the plot of 'Missing Dan Nolan' by Mark Wheeler where they will explore the genre and style of the set text. Pupils will explore the structure of the play and its context (Historical, Cultural and Social) and key characters. Pupils will be have the opportunity to practice their voice and physical skills, discuss stage directions, the use of space, directorial choices, design choices (light, sound, set and costume) while developing their performance skills using the set text scripts. |
| How will I be assessed? | Persecution – Intro to Devising The performance will be assessed using GCSE Performance criteria for performing Devising. A Set Text – Missing Dan Nolan Pupils will be assessed on an extract of the script performance and pupils will complete exam questions on the set text for assessment. |
| Next Steps | Persecution – Intro to Devising Make sure pupils use the feedback that is given to them and use it to help them set targets of the areas they need to improve with their performing skills. A Set Text – Missing Dan Nolan As this is the GCSE DRAMA set text, pupils will need to revise this play often throughout the course. |
| Opportunities for Independent Learning | Persecution – Intro to Devising Independent learning is essential in all lessons as work will be completed in books which will show pupils understanding of what they completed in the practical part of the lesson. A Set Text – Missing Dan Nolan For the set GCSE text, pupils can look at character explorations, along with examination questions and creating revision materials. |
| Personal Development and CEIAG | Pupils will develop their communication, collaboration and teamwork skills, along with developing empathy and taking on board constructive feedback. |
| Enrichment Opportunities (Cultural Capital) | Extra-curricular clubs are held at lunchtimes and after school throughout the year – check the notice board outside the Drama Studio to look at dates and times etc. A whole school production will also take place this term so all pupils are free to join that. Trips will be available during the year to some of the Manchester Theatres which will include tickets and transport. If you are interested in seeing any shows that we don't run as a trip have a look at the Manchester Theatre What's on Guide https://www.visitmanchester.com/whats-on/events/whats-on-opera-house-palace-theatre . It is also worth looking at the Lowry , Home Theatre https://homemcr.org/whats-on/ and Blackpool Opera House https://www.wintergardensblackpool.co.uk/whats-on/ . Pupils are also very fortunate to have lots of lovely theatres local to them so it's always worth having a look to see what's on such as Burnley Mechanics |

|  | <h2 style="margin: 0;">Year 10 – Summer Term</h2> <h3 style="margin: 0;">Devising Exam</h3> |
| Prior Learning | The work pupils have covered and learn over the last two terms on developing their 'devising skills' will enable the pupils to be able to complete the tasks for the 'OCR 'Devising Exam' which contributes towards their final GCSE grade. |
| What will I learn? | Pupils will need to work collaboratively to create, develop, perform, and evaluate their own piece of devised drama as performers. Pupils will need to research a stimulus, generate dramatic ideas and create an appropriate structure. When performing, pupils will have to perform under examination conditions and work to a specific timeframe. |
| How will I be assessed? | Pupil's performances will be recorded, and it will be assessed internally by the teacher using the OCR GCSE DRAMA marking criteria, which will then be externally moderated. 20 marks will be awarded for the performance and 40 marks are awarded for the portfolio. |
| Next Steps | Using the skills that pupils have developed over the course will allow them to apply them when studying the OCR set texts in year 11 and the performance requirements for their final performance which will could towards their final grade. |
| Opportunities for Independent Learning | Pupils will independently keep a record of the process through a portfolio, this will be marked regularly, and feedback must be taken into consideration to improve the quality. Use of the green revision book is vital for pupils to improve vocabulary and general knowledge of theatre makers. |
| Personal Development and CEIAG | With the 'devising Exam' pupils will need to develop good time management skills by being good at time keeping and keeping to a tight schedule. They will need to use their collaboration, analysis and self-evaluation skills when rehearsing and performing their own piece. |
