

Curriculum Overview – Computer Science

The Computer Science department aims to provide pupils with the opportunity to follow a curriculum that intends to improve computational thinking, digital literacy and ICT skills. We want our pupils to develop these foundations as life-long learners going forward.

