Opportunities for Independent Learning	RE Department Revision Resources – OneDrive RE shared folder          BBC Bitesize – Catholic Christianity - https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/z6jv2sg          Mr McMillian - https://www.youtube.com/c/MrMcMillanREvis/playlists          St Bede's RE clips - https://www.youtube.com/c/StBedesBlackburnRE/playlists          Hodder Education: Edexcel Religious Studies Catholic Christianity Specification A My Revision notes by Victor W Watton          GCSE Edexcel A Catholic Christianity with Judaism textbook, revision guide and workbooks by Andy Lewis.

Personal Development and CEIAG	Pupils will gain knowledge of, and respect for, different people's faiths, for example, they will understand the importance of the rosary, why pilgrimage is important to deepen faith and the impact that Catholic Social Teaching has on charity and the treatment of others. This unit will develop pupil's ability to be reflective about their own beliefs and that of others by studying the importance of the Catholic sources of wisdom and authority and compare them to other Christian sources of authority. This unit will develop and deepen the British values of respect and tolerance when they study Mary's life and examples of sacrifice and discipleship. Pupils will look at the impact of ethical decision making and how the Bible, Jesus and the Magisterium influences that decision making on modern ethical issues.
Enrichment Opportunities (Cultural Capital)	Pupils can reflect on any experience they have had of attending any of the liturgical celebrations within school and within their own lives, such as a baptism, marriage or Catholic funeral. Pupils have the opportunity to join the Rosary or prayer groups within school, especially during the months of May and October. Pupils are encouraged to look into ethical dimensions of their own lives and make decisions accordingly, for example Jesus' teachings would suggest the use of Fairtrade products, walking to places, wastefulness and current social issues. Pupils are encouraged to discuss theological issues at home and in a wider context. For example, their thoughts on whether the Pope is infallible? Should the church be speaking out more and the authority of the Bible in modern multi-cultural society or does the church need to modernise?
