How will I be assessed?

Formative assessment will take place throughout each lesson such as question and answer discussions, mini whiteboard work and retrieval activities. Summative assessment will take place at the end of John 10:10, Pol-Ed, Finance / First Aid topics.

Next Steps

On completion of all topics students use their remaining weeks preparing for their Year 11 exams in the summer term.

Opportunities for Independent Learning

A variety of links related to each lesson are displayed during each lesson. Students are given access to these links through their synergy accounts. Personal development topics can be accessed through 'The Day' The Day - Homepage - The Day

Personal Development and CEIAG

PSHE forms part of the Personal Development curriculum.

Each week throughout morning Personal Development (PD) time students will also be given the opportunity to discuss areas of PSHE through 'The Day' (on-line news articles). Each Friday during PD students watch and discuss the 2 'job of the week' videos.

A range of guest speakers are invited to speak to classes and whole year groups throughout the year on topics related to Personal Development, PSHE and CEIAG. Guest speakers use both assembly time and PSHE Monday lessons to speak to both classes and whole year groups. The careers guidance sessions involve talks to each PSHE class from Burnley College, Nelson and Colne College, Craven College, and Training 2000 with regards to post 16 options. All Year 11 students receive a dedicated one to one careers session with our Independent Careers Advisor – Claire Baker – in order to help them consider their options post 16.

All Year 11 students take part in a mock interview and career networking day in the autumn term.

Enrichment Opportunities (Cultural Capital)

A variety of enrichment activities linked to personal development can be accessed each week through both the sporting and curriculum extra curricular programmes – students are encouraged to engage with as many enrichment activities as possible and should consult with the weekly programmes displayed by their form tutors.
